Series Record

Salisbury leads 1-0 after claiming last year's inaugural meeting between the teams with a 21-6 victory in the season-opener at CNU Stadium. That contest, played before an overflow crowd of 6,136, marked the debut of the CNU football program. QB Mac Mollet rushed for two touchdowns and passed for another to lead the Sea Gulls, while RB Kaveh Conaway scored CNU's first-ever touchdown on a 74-yard run.

Salisbury UNIVERSITY

Experienced Rushers Expected To Pace SU Offense
The Sea Gulls begin the season with four running backs who have registered 100-yard rushing games in their collegiate careers. Senior Tony Ellis, last year's leading rusher with 656 yards, leads the quartet. Ellis begins the year with 2,904 career yards and needs 746 yards in 2002 to become Salisbury's all-time rushing leader. Senior FB Reggie Boyce, a starter in all 10 games in 2000, also returns after missing last season with a knee injury. Boyce rushed for 768 yards and 11 TDs in 2000, including a school-record 99-yard touchdown dash. Junior Sean Montpetit and sophomore Rob Pashkevich also saw significant action last year. In Boyce's absence, Montpetit earned first team all-conference honors at fullback while finishing second on the team with 523 yards rushing. Pashkevich had 308 yards rushing while seeing action in five games.

Veterans Anchor the Offensive Line
With four returning starters, the offensive line should be one of the most experienced units on the team in 2002. Senior Beau Ridgway, who earned first team all-ACFC honors last year, returns for his third season as a starter at guard. Junior Ryan McDowell also returns as a third-year starter at the other guard position. Junior team captain Muhammid Husainey returns for his second season as a starter at one tackle position. Sophomore David Buckingham and junior Brendan Riley both started games at center in 2001 and both will see action again. Sophomores Sean MacGillivary and Sean Tucker are also among the returnees who will help.

Nine Returning Starters Back on Defense
The benefit of having a young defense in 2001 should pay dividends this season with nine experienced starters returning. Senior captain Pat Brannan heads the unit, joining sophomores Mike Myrtle and Brad DeHaven on a formidable linebacking corps. Brannan is a two-time all-conference player and the team's leading tackler in 1999 and 2000 who suffered a season-ending injury early in the 2001 campaign. Meanwhile, Myrtle and DeHaven enjoyed productive freshman campaigns, finishing second and fifth on the team in tackles, respectively. Three-year starter Tom McCarthy will anchor the defensive line, while senior Foster Epps is the most experienced among the secondary players.

Statistically Speaking
The Sea Gulls averaged 287.2 yards per game in total offense and 22.8 ppg last year while finishing with a final 4-6 record. The offense averaged 187.5 ypg on the ground and 99.7 ypg through the air. Defensively, Salisbury allowed 304.6 ypg in total offense, with opponents averaging 24.7 ppg.

Varsity Club Luncheons
The Salisbury University Varsity Club is once again hosting its weekly football luncheons with Head Coach Sherman Wood. The luncheons are each Thursday at noon in the Salisbury Commons on campus. The public is cordially invited to attend. The luncheons will continue regularly every Thursday through the end of the season. The cost of the luncheon is $6.05 plus tax per person, which includes an all-you-can-eat a la carte menu, as well as beverages and dessert. Reservations are not necessary.

Scouting The Captains
Christopher Newport enters its second season of varsity football coming off an unprecedented success story in 2001. The Captains won the Dixie Conference championship and became the first team in NCAA history to advance to the national playoffs in its first season of competition. CNU finished with a final 5-4 record after beginning the year at 0-3. With 32 returning players who started at least one game last year, Christopher Newport has been tabbed as the preseason favorite in the Dixie once again in 2002. QB Eric Carlson, who earned second team all-Dixie honors, will lead an offense that returns nine starters, including all five offensive linemen. CNU returns six all-Dixie players on defense, including the conference's rookie of the year, lineman Olando Holmes.

Sea Gull Nibbles
Senior Jeff Johnson and freshman Dustin Johnson have emerged in the preseason as the top two candidates to replace Mollet at quarterback ... Senior Kevin Belt, who finished with 13 receptions in 2001, is the top returning wide receiver ... All told, SU returns nine of its top 12 tacklers on defense from last year ... Sophomores Nick Good-Malloy and Greg Cannon both had fumble recoveries in last year's game against CNU, while DeHaven led the defense with eight total tackles, including five tackles for loss ... The Gulls play three of their first four games at home this season ... SU continues non-conference action at Sea Gull Stadium next Saturday against William Paterson.

Head Coach Sherman Wood

Wood's Words

"I like the athletic ability that we have at all positions this year. Our goal as coaches is to help the players limit their mistakes and to get our players focused on the season.

"Our goal this year is to win our conference championship. Some of the best teams on our schedule are in our conference, so if we do well against them, we should fare well against some of the non-conference teams also. We know that winning the conference is a high goal, but we think it's truly realistic. We've been very close in the past...we think our time has come."

Sherman Wood is in his fourth season at his Alma Mater in 2002 and his 10th season as a collegiate head coach. Despite a 4-6 final record in 2001, Wood can point to a number of highlights that dotted his third season back on the Eastern Shore. The Sea Gulls played a school-record three overtime contests and finished the season with 10 players receiving all-conference honors. Wood guided his team to the first overtime victory in SU history, and also finished just three points shy of capturing the Regents Cup Trophy for the second consecutive year.

Exciting games and historic achievements are nothing new for Wood, who returned to his Alma Mater as head football coach in April, 1999. A 1984 graduate of the University and a four-year letterman on the Sea Gull football team, Wood is the sixth head coach in Salisbury football history. He returned to Salisbury after spending six years as the head coach at Bowie State (MD) University.

For the second straight year, Salisbury produced the Atlantic Central Football Conference's Rookie of the Year. Freshman DB Milo Austin claimed the honor in 2001 after QB Mac Mollet earned the award in 2000. All told, under Wood's direction, the Sea Gulls have produced 27 all-conference performers in three seasons. Salisbury also had the conference's co-Offensive Player of the Year in 1999 in RB Myron Dent. The Gulls have had a 1,000-yard rusher in two of Wood's three seasons as head coach, just the eighth and ninth time in the program's history to accomplish that feat.

Wood, 41, played defensive back for the Sea Gulls from 1980-1983, during the tenure of two different head coaches. Bill Yeagle served as the head coach during Wood's first two seasons, before Mike McGlinchey took over as head coach in 1982. Wood finished with seven career interceptions, including two returns for touchdown, and was a starter and team captain on the 1983 team that earned SU's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth and advanced to the national semifinals.

Wood still holds the Sea Gull record for most career interception return yards with 131. He earned all-state defensive back honors by The (Baltimore) Sun and recognition as a Street & Smith All-American during his career.

Wood began his collegiate coaching career as a volunteer assistant under McGlinchey in 1984 and became a graduate assistant coach for the Sea Gulls in 1985. He moved to Bowie State as a graduate assistant coach in 1986, coaching the defensive backs and special teams.

He became a full-time assistant coach with the Bulldogs in 1988, assuming the duties of assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. He remained at Bowie State as an assistant coach until 1992, when he became the assistant head football coach at Virginia Union. One year later, in 1993, Wood returned to Bowie State as head coach.

Wood inherited a Bowie State program that finished 1-10 in the season before he arrived. He compiled a 23-37-1 record in six seasons at the NCAA Division II school. The team's 6-3 record in 1998 was its best in 10 years. Bowie State was ranked 16th in the nation in total defense in 1998 (268.7 ypg), second in the nation in pass defense (106.9 ypg), and 10th in the nation in scoring defense (14.0 ppg).

During Wood's tenure at Bowie State, he coached six Coca-Cola/Sportsview Scholar-Athlete Award winners and a national Burger King Scholar-Athlete of the Week winner. He had three players earn all-CIAA honors in 1998, and one player who received all-South Atlantic Region honors.

Originally from Norfolk, VA, Wood is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and serves the organization on its All-America Selection Committee, Rules Committee, and Summer Manual Committee.

An active member of the community, Wood is a speaker at numerous sports clinics and involves himself in a variety of local organizations. These groups include: the Special Olympics, the Jazz Foundation, the Wicomico Youth Mentor Program and the Salisbury Middle School Gentlemen's Club, among others.

In addition to his bachelor's degree from Salisbury University, Wood earned his master's degree from Bowie State. He and his wife Tonya have one daughter, Sherece, 17.

Assistant Coaches

Robb Disbennett
Defensive Coordinator

A former all-America quarterback for the Sea Gulls and a 1996 inductee to SU Athletics Hall of Fame, Disbennett is in his 12th season on the Salisbury staff. Disbennett owned virtually every team passing record when he graduated in 1986, and still claims the marks for most touchdown passes in a season and career, highest completion percentage for a season, and most consecutive passes completed. Under Disbennett's tutelage, Salisbury finished ranked 14th in the nation in passing in 1993 and 1994. He is serving his third season as the team's defensive coordinator in 2002. Disbennett resides in Hebron, MD, with his wife, Marcy and daughters, Mackensie and Leah.

Doug Fleetwood
Offensive Coordinator

One of the most successful prep coaches on the Eastern Shore, Fleetwood is in his third season as a member of the Sea Gull football staff. Fleetwood returned to his Alma Mater in 2000 after serving as the head coach at Cambridge-South Dorchester High School for 21 years, where he compiled a 190-50 overall record. His teams won three Maryland state championships (1979, 1995, 1996) and made 16 playoff appearances during his tenure. The Cambridge, MD, native also serves as head coach of the Sea Gull baseball program, with a two-year record of 63-26-3, including SU's first World Series appearance in 2001.

Rob Grande
Head of Football Operations/ Linebackers

Grande is in his third year as SU's operations director in addition to his coaching duties with the linebackers. Grande, who concluded his Sea Gull placekicking career in 1991, is serving his 10th season overall as a member of the staff. Grande finished second on the team in scoring as a senior with 31 points. His previous duties with the team included stints as the kicking coach, linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. He and his wife Penny reside in Salisbury and have a son, Sean.

Chris Morandi
Strength and Conditioning/ Offensive Line

A three-year letterman for the Sea Gulls, Morandi is in his third year as the team's strength and conditioning coach, overseeing in-season and off-season player workouts. He also serves as a position coach, working primarily this season with the offensive line, and assistants with the SU track & field team in the spring. Morandi started all nine games on the Sea Gull defensive line as a senior in 1999 and finished fifth on the team with 38 tackles, including six TFL.

Ryan Fleetwood
Quarterbacks/WRs

A former all-state quarterback and All-American baseball player at Cambridge South Dorchester High School, Fleetwood returns for his third season as an assistant. He will work primarily with the quarterbacks and wide receivers. Fleetwood, who was a scholarship pitcher at the University of Maryland, still holds a number of Maryland high school passing records and ranks among the all-time state leaders in career TD passes and passing yards.

Art Johnstone
Offensive Line

Johnstone joins the two Fleetwoods as another member of the SU staff with links to Cambridge-South Dorchester High School. He served as the assistant football coach from 1971-99 and was a key part of all three state championships during that span. Originally from Cambridge, OH, Johnstone will coach the offensive line again this season. He and his wife Iris have three children, Patrick (25), Jill (22) and Jake (16).

Ron Dickerson
Running Backs

Dickerson joins the staff this season after a long and successful tenure as the head coach at Seaford (DE) High School. Dickerson won two state championships at Seaford during his 28-year career and ranks first in the Henlopen Conference and fourth in the state of Delaware in coaching victories. He and his wife Marsha reside in Laurel, DE, and have three sons: Craig, Marc (a former Sea Gull letterman) and Jeff.

Paul Duffy
Defensive Line

A four-year Sea Gull letterman, Duffy begins his first season as an assistant coach. Duffy was a three-year starter on the defensive line and served as one of the team captains as a senior in 2001. Duffy finished second among the linemen with 20 tackles last season, including three TFL (-9 yds) and one sack. The Columbia, MD, native is also working toward his M.B.A. in the Perdue Business School at SU.

Dante Trader
Defensive Backs

A four-year starter as a cornerback at Widener (PA) College, Trader begins his first season with the Sea Gulls in 2002. Trader led the Pioneers in pass breakups as a senior while earning all-conference and all-ECAC honors. Widener advanced to the national semifinals of the 2000 NCAA Division III Championship Tournament. The Delmar, DE, native was also a national track All-American in the 4 x 100 relay.

Chuck Goldstein
Linebackers

Goldstein is in his first season as an assistant after concluding his Sea Gull career in 2000. Goldstein, originally from Germantown, MD, was a starting linebacker for the Gulls after joining the program as a junior transfer. He finished sixth on the team in 2000 with 40 tackles, including eight tackles for loss and three sacks.

Team Captains

"I'm thrilled to have these four young men selected by their teammates as our captains," says Head Coach Sherman Wood. "They each have some very special qualities and provide a great blend and mixture in leadership for our team. I'm also pleased with the balance that we have among our captains this year, with two offensive players and two defensive players."

Four players have been selected by their teammates as the captains for the 2002 Salisbury University football team. They are LB Pat Brannan, RB Tony Ellis, OL Muhammid Husainey and DT Tom McCarthy. A closer look at this year's team captains:

Pat Brannan
Linebacker
Lutherville, MD (Loyola HS)

Brannan returns for his third season as a team captain and fifth season with the program after receiving an extra season of eligibility due to last year's season-endincxinjury...Brannan suffered a broken arm in the third game of the 2001 season and was unable to return to action...A starter since his freshman season, he led the team in tackles as a sophomore and junior...Brannan received first team all-conference honors in 2000 after leading the league with 105 total tackles, including 46 solo...He added nine tackles for loss (-30 yards), three sacks (-18) and two pass interceptions...He earned second team all-conference accolades in 1999 while finishing second in the ACFC with 10.7 tackles per game (and 97 overall)... Brannan registered a conference single-game best and a personal career-high of 19 tackles against the College of New Jersey in 1999.

Tony Ellis
Running Back
Vienna, VA (Madison HS)

Ellis is serving in his first season as a team captain and could finish his career as Salisbury's all-time leading rusher...Ellis enters the 2002 season with 2,904 career yards, ranking fourth in Salisbury history...He also ranks sixth in career scoring with 180 points...The Vienna, VA, native owns two of the top five rushing performances in team history, including an ACFC record of 255 yards against Greensboro in 2000...His total of 1,287 yards in 2000 ranks as the second highest single-season total in Sea Gull history.

Tom McCarthy
Defensive Line
Olney, MD (DeMatha HS)

McCarthy returns for his third season as a starter and first as a team captain...A very consistent performer, he had 38 total tackles in 2000 and 37 tackles in 2001...He led the Sea Gull linemen in tackles last season after finishing second among the linemen as a sophomore... McCarthy received honorable mention all-ACFC recognition in 2000 after registering 11 tackles for loss and three QB sacks...He has also earned ACFC all-Academic honors in each of the past two seasons...McCarthy, who can play both the tackle and end position, enters the 2002 season with 18 career tackles for loss and five QB sacks.

Muhammid Husainey
Offensive Line
Vero Beach, FL (St. Edwards HS)

Husainey returns for his second year as a starter and will once again serve as one of the anchors on the offensive line...Started all 10 games last year at the tackle position and helped the Sea Gulls average 187.5 yards per game rushing...The Gulls had four games of 200-yards or more, including a season-high of 297 yards rushing in the overtime victory against Ferrum... Husainey and the offensive line also ushered four individual 100-yard rushing games in 2001...The only junior among this year's four captains.

The University

Mission Statement

Salisbury University's mission is to cultivate and sustain a superior, student-centered learning community where students, faculty and staff are viewed as both teachers and learners, and where a commitment to excellence permeates all aspects of University life. We recruit exceptional and diverse faculty, staff, undergraduate and graduate students and support them as they work together to reach the University's goals. Serving Maryland and the Mid-Atlantic region, we are concerned participants in responding to the educational, economic, cultural and social needs of our community and believe that service is a vital component of civic life. Our highest purpose is to empower our students with the knowledge, skills and core values that contribute to life-long learning and active citizenship in a democratic society and interdependent world.

Values

The core values of Salisbury University are excellence, student-centeredness, learning, community, civic engagement and diversity. We believe these values must be lived and experienced as integral to everyday campus life so that students make the connection between what they learn and how they live.

Excellence: Excellence, the standard against which all University activities and outcomes are measured, connotes the perfection and the quality for which we strive and hold ourselves accountable. We accept the notion that the quality of a university depends on the heads and hearts of those in it.

Student-Centeredness: Our students are the primary reason for our existence. Our focus is on their academic and individual success and on their health and well-being. We are committed to helping students learn to make reasoned decisions and to be accountable for the outcomes of the decisions they have made.

Learning: We believe that learning is fundamental to living a life with purpose in an increasingly interrelated world and that our role is to teach students not what to think, but how to think. The University introduces students to a system of ideas about the nature of humanity, the universe, and the world created by art and thought. Through active learning, service learning, international experience and co-curricular activities, students connect research to practice, and theory to action.

Community: Salisbury University takes pride in being a caring and civil place where individuals accept their obligations to the group, learn through their interactions and relationships with others, where governance is shared, and where the focus is on the common good. We honor the heritage and traditions of the institution which serve as a foundation for future change.

Civic Engagement: The University stands as a part of, rather than apart from, the local and regional community. Recognizing its history and traditions, we seek to improve the quality of life for citizens in the region. We believe it is our responsibility to enrich cultural life, enhance the conduct of public affairs and contribute to the advancement of the region. We seek to instill in our students a lifelong commitment to civic engagement.

Diversity: Salisbury University views itself as a just community where there is respect for the value of global, societal and individual differences and commitment to equal opportunity. Diversity is purposefully cultivated as a way to strengthen and enhance our University community.

Keep an Eye On...

Game: Hawaii at BYU; September 6 at LaVell Edwards Stadium
Last Meeting: Hawaii 72, BYU 45 (12/8/01 at Hawaii)
Breakdown: Going into last year's contest, the undefeated Cougars had already received word that they would not be a part of the BCS. Hence, a reason for the letdown in Hawaii. However, wide receiver Reno Mahe, coming off a 91-reception season, and the Cougars are looking for a measure of revenge. With a deep arsenal of running backs, led by Mike Bass and Thero Mitchell, the Warriors will be ready to counter.

Game: Miami at Florida; September 7 at Florida Field
Last Meeting: Miami 37, Florida 20 (1/2/01 at Louisiana Superdome in Sugar Bowl)
Breakdown: Renewing an old rivalry, the Hurricanes and Gators square off in the regular season for the first time since 1987. The headline duel will be at the quarterback position, as the two early favorites for the Heisman Trophy—Miami's Ken Dorsey and Florida's Rex Grossman—will be leading these two high-powered offenses and looking to excel against the other's tough, hard-hitting defense.

Game: California-Davis at Grand Valley State; September 7 at Lubbers Stadium
Last Meeting: California-Davis 40, Grand Valley State 38 (10/31/98 at Grand Valley State)
Breakdown: Two of the top squads in Division II square off in an early season non-conference affair. Despite the loss of star quarterback J.T. O'Sullivan, many feel California-Davis will still be a major contender for the national title as long as wide receiver Michael Oliva is on his game. Grand Valley State, last season's national runners-up, will look to damage the Aggies' title hopes, as gun-slinger Curt Anes leads the Lakers' offensive surge.

When the ball is in the hands of ace receiver Roy Williams (No. 4, below) or explosive returner Nathan Vasher (No. 3, below right), things normally don't look good for the opposition.

Lone Star Revival

Year after year of bringing in the nation's top talent has finally culminated into Mack Brown and the Texas Longhorns earning TDI's preseason No. 1 ranking

By Peter Hayes

When Mack Brown decided to take the head coaching position at Texas prior to the 1998 season, one of his goals was to put "Texas back in the top 10 where it belongs," he said.

Texas, prior to Brown's arrival, was living off its reputation. While the team regularly won eight games, it had not won nine or more games for four consecutive years since the legendary Darrell Royal ran the show from 1961-64.

After four straight seasons of nine or more wins, including last year's 11-2 record—the most wins by a UT team since 1983—it is safe to say they are back and so are the expectations, which will be sky-high in Austin this season.

For Brown, he welcomes the expectations, referring to something Royal told him several years ago. "If you're going to be rated, get rated high," Royal said.

With 13 starters back in the fold, along with a veteran quarterback leading an explosive offense, Touchdown Illustrated has given the Longhorns its highest preseason rating: the No. 1 team in the country.

While eight starters return to an offense that averaged 39.2 points and 412.5 yards per game in 2001, there is one noticeable absence: the lack of controversy at quarterback. Major Applewhite, the fan favorite and former co-Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year (1999) who endeared himself to the faithful with many spectacular come-from-behind wins, has graduated.

Chris Simms, the highly recruited left-hander from New Jersey and son of former NFL great Phil Simms, has the job all to his own. Simms, who has played poorly in several critical games (vs. Oklahoma in 2001) is coming off his best season for the Longhorns after completing 214 of 362 passes for 2,603 yards with 22 touchdowns and 11 interceptions.

Brown believes that Simms will be more productive because he is "more confident and has a better feel for the offense."

The numbers support Brown's claim. Simms has progressed nicely the last two years, after playing in only six games in 1999. In the past two seasons, the 6-5, 225-pound Simms has improved his completion percentage (from 57.3 in 2000 to 59.1 in 2001) and touchdowns-to-interceptions differential (8-to-7 to 22-to-11).

Brown feels that when Simms is finished at Austin, he will have "set a legacy like Major."

One player who has quickly established his legacy is sophomore running back Cedric Benson, who raced onto the scene last season to earn Big 12 Freshman of the Year honors after setting several new school records (see "Immediate Impact"). Benson rushed for 1,053 yards and 12 touchdowns on 223 carries and also proved to be a reliable receiver out of the backfield, catching 17 passes for 203 yards and one touchdown.

Despite losing All-American right tackle Mike Williams, who was drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the first round, three starters along the offensive line return. Robbie Doane, a 6-6, 315-pound senior who has started 13 straight games, anchors a unit that easily averages over 300 pounds.

This dominating group of veteran blockers will not only open holes for Benson, but should afford Simms ample time to look downfield. When he does, he will be looking primarily for All-Big 12 receiver Roy Williams and B.J. Johnson. Williams, who missed spring practice after having offseason ankle surgery, is one of the leading receivers in the country. Last season, the 6-4, 210-pound Williams caught a team-high 67 passes for 836 yards and seven touchdowns. It was the second straight season that Williams registered 800-plus receiving yards for the Longhorns. Johnson is the perfect complement to Williams, finishing second on the club with 41 catches for 539 yards and four scores. For Johnson, it was his second 41-catch season.

As if that weren't enough for Simms to choose from, 6-3, 250-pound tight end Bo Scaife returns after playing in all 13 games, hauling in 30 receptions for 396 yards and one touchdown.

Ironically, Simms, the No. 1 quarterback who wore No. 1 on his jersey the past two seasons, will be wearing No. 2 in 2002. Simms was able to change to the number he wore in high school after it finally became available now that weakside linebacker Everick Rawls has graduated.

The real challenge for Texas will be to find six new starters on a defense that regularly shut down its opponent. Texas' defense permitted only 13.7 points in 2001 and held five teams to seven points or less, including a shutout of Kansas (59-0).

Brown remains optimistic that the depth the club has developed the past few seasons will pay off this year with unheralded players stepping up. "We have more inexperienced players [than last year], but they are as talented as those were," said Brown.

Three of the club's five starters return along the defensive front. Defensive end Cory Redding, a 6-5, 270-pound First-Team All-Big 12 selection, returns to terrorize opposing quarterbacks. Redding has been one of the most productive linemen for the team the last two seasons, averaging 55 tackles, 5.5 sacks and 20 quarterback pressures. Rejoining Redding will be tackle Marcus Tubbs (50 tackles, 2 sacks and 12 tackles for loss) and end Kalen Thornton (44 tackles, 4 sacks and 11 tackles for loss).

All-American cornerback Quentin Jammer is now in the NFL (San Diego Chargers), but the Longhorns secondary does return two seasoned starters. Cornerback Roderick Babers and strong safety Nathan Vasher accounted for eight of the club's 15 interceptions. Babers also registered 40 tackles and 17 passes defended,

IMMEDIATE IMPACT

Sophomore running back Cedric Benson hasn't wasted any time in making a name for himself

Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams didn't rush for as many yards when he was a freshman—990 to be exact.

NFL Hall of Famer Earl Campbell didn't have nearly as many touchdowns (6). For that matter, Adrian Walker had 30 less rushing attempts (193).

Cedric Benson has already placed his name above those Texas greats as the leading freshman runner in yards (1,053), TDs (12) and attempts (223).

"Cedric came in and did a tremendous job for us as a true freshman," said offensive coordinator Greg Davis. "The things that make him so effective are that he has such great vision and balance, and he runs much bigger than his size. He doesn't get knocked off his feet very easily and he hits the hole well."

Despite missing the second half of the Big 12 championship game versus Colorado (pinched nerve in his neck), the 6-0, 205-pound Benson earned Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year honors and was named the team's Offensive Most Valuable Player.

It took Benson five games before he found his stride, but once he did, he was hard to catch. In UT's first five games, he rushed for an average of 37.2 yards per game, including zero yards vs. Oklahoma.

Well, Benson must like something about Stillwater, because he exploded for 131 yards on 31 carries in the 45-17 win over Oklahoma State on Oct. 13. That outing ignited a string of performances in which Benson rushed for 100 yards or more in the next four games, including a season high of 213 on 28 carries vs. Kansas. In the 59-0 pounding of the Jayhawks, Benson displayed his game-breaking ability by gaining 60 yards each on a single rushing attempt and a catch in the same game—the first time that has been accomplished since 1984 (Terry Orr).

What truly distinguishes Benson is his exceptional balance and ability to gain yards after the first hit. Last year, he gained over 54 percent of his rushing yards after initial contact.

No wonder Brown, Davis and the Longhorns are excited about Benson's upcoming season. —PH

while Vasher, who led the team with seven aerial thefts, also made 56 tackles (41 solo) and 18 passes defended.

The starting linebacking corps of D.D. Lewis (81 tackles, 5.5 sacks) in the middle, Tyrone Jones (45 tackles, 6 tackles for loss) on the strongside and Everick Rawls (74 tackles, 5 tackles for loss and one interception) on the weakside will have to be entirely replaced. A productive group, this deadly trio combined to make 635 tackles, 73 tackles for loss, 26.5 sacks and 81 quarterback pressures in the past four seasons.

"There's a lot of guys that will compete for jobs and we will just have to see who steps up and takes over," said Brown.

Expected to "step up" is weakside linebacker Derrick Johnson. The 6-4, 220-pound Johnson earned co-Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year honors by finishing second on the team with 83 tackles, 13 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks.

"I'm looking for Derrick to take the next step and become a leader," said defensive coordinator Carl Reese. "He has all the ability and instincts you need to be a great player and he made some spectacular plays for us last year."

The kicking game is on solid footing with Dusty Magnum returning at placekicker and Brian Bradford at punter. Magnum was sensational in his first season with the Longhorns, by setting a new single-season scoring record for a freshman with 102 points, connecting on 16 of 23 field goals and 54 of 55 extra points. The 5-11, 170-pound Mesquite, Texas, native was named First-Team Freshman All-America. While Bradford did not have the record-setting season that Magnum enjoyed, he still turned in a respectable campaign, averaging 36.3 yards per punt and placing 24 of his 56 kicks inside the opponents' 20-yard line.

Junior wide receiver B.J. Johnson, coming off consecutive 41-catch seasons, is the perfect complement to Roy Williams on the outside.

Explosive specialists Nathan Vasher (15.0 yard punt return average) and Victor Ike (30.7 yard kickoff return average) return.

Texas enters the season with a 13-game, home-winning streak intact that dates back to 1999. UT should again run the table at Memorial Stadium, with Texas A&M (Nov. 29) presenting the stiffest challenge to the streak. Overall, the schedule is filled with its typical Big 12 pitfalls, as Oklahoma is slated for Oct. 12 in Dallas and Nebraska will be hosting the 'Horns on Nov. 2.

One storyline will play itself out twice this season when Texas faces both North Carolina in Chapel Hill (Sept. 14) and Tulane in New Orleans (Sept. 28). These are the last two coaching stops on Brown's resume that began in 1973 when he was a wide receivers coach at Florida State.

Brown, who posted a combined 80-56-1 record in 13 years at the two schools, is "excited about going back to both."

As for the Texas faithful, they are just plain excited about the season. ■

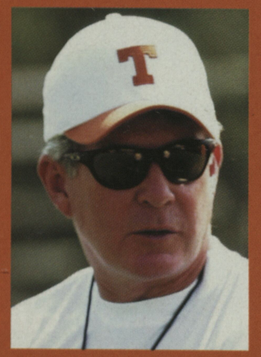
MACK HAS THE KNACK

Mack Brown's recruiting expertise shows in the pipeline of talent he continues to assemble



While there are many factors to the success of the Texas Longhorns under Mack Brown, the most consistent reason is his ability to attract a bevy of blue-chip recruits to Austin.

While the Longhorns saw two of their 2001 starters selected in the first four picks of the recent NFL Draft (OT Mike Williams and CB Quentin Jammer), the university was also welcoming in another stellar recruiting class, which was ranked the nation's best by SuperPrep Magazine.

"Not only did Mack Brown recruit the finest talent in the state, he also recruited some of the finest talent outside the state," said Allen Wallace, publisher and founder of SuperPrep Magazine.

According to Wallace, an important component to Brown's success has been the rebuilding of relationships between the university and high school coaches around the talent-rich state.

"He has awakened a sleeping giant," said Wallace, who points out that UT will welcome in six of the Lone Star State's top 10 prospects this summer.

One of those premium in-state prospects is quarterback Vince Young from Houston. The 6-5, 200-pound Young was responsible for 3,819 yards and 59 touchdowns as a senior at Madison HS and could be the heir apparent to Chris Simms.

Brown attributes three factors to his success: a great product, his staff recruits the state well and the players sell the team.

While all three are true, he is being somewhat modest.

"He's a great salesman," said Wallace. "I think that is the most important factor."

Two years ago, SuperPrep rated a 6-0, 205-pound back out of Midland (Texas) Lee HS as the second-best back in the country. Texas successfully recruited Cedric Benson and he went on to rush for a school freshman record of 1,053 yards and 12 touchdowns on 223 carries.

Ironically, on NFL Draft day, North Carolina's Julius Peppers and Ryan Sims, two players Brown recruited just before leaving the Tar Heels to take the Longhorns position, were selected in the top six picks. All told, Brown recruited four of the first six players drafted.

And while the NFL's newest millionaires smiled for the cameras, some high school prospect watching on ESPN that day just might have made up his mind about where to attend school next fall. —PH

The Best of the Rest

Trailing the talented Longhorns in the season's top 10 is a cast of all the usual suspects, as the Big 12 places a stranglehold on the list with three additional entries By Peter Hayes

2. MIAMI HURRICANES

2001: 12-0, 7-0 Big East; Beat Nebraska, 37-14, in Rose Bowl

Head Coach: Larry Coker (2nd year: 12-0; Career: 12-0)

The Lowdown: It is unheard of that a team could have a record five players selected in the first round of the NFL Draft (11 overall) and still be this highly ranked—unless you are the Miami Hurricanes, of course.

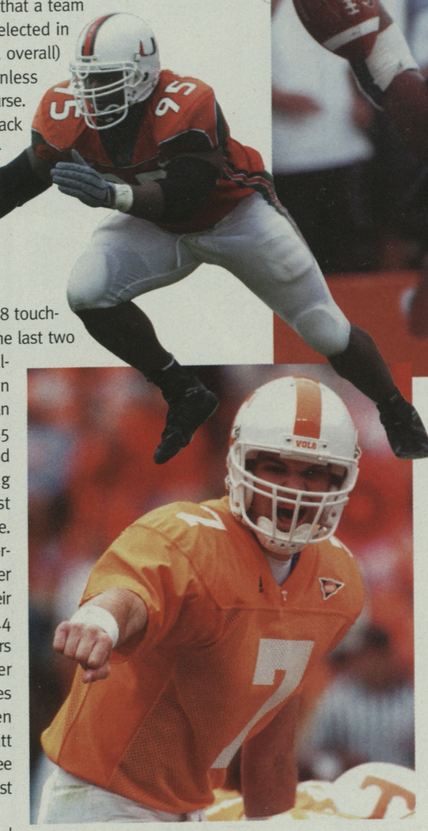
It all starts with senior quarterback Ken Dorsey, one of the most productive passers in the history of a school that has produced such signal-callers as Gino Torretta, Vinny Testaverde, Bernie Kosar and Jim Kelly.

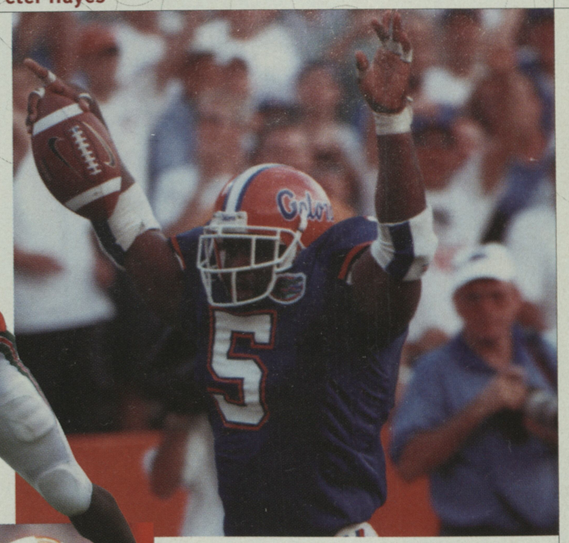
Dorsey threw for 5,389 yards, 48 touchdowns and only 14 interceptions the last two seasons, placing in the top five of almost every major passing category in the Miami record books. The Heisman Trophy candidate completed 22 of 35 passes for a career-high 362 yards and three touchdowns while earning a share of the MVP honors in last season's national championship game.

While the offense was busy averaging a school-record 43.2 points per game, the 'Cane defense stormed their opponents, yielding a measly 9.4 points to lead the nation. Six starters return, including team sack leader William Joseph (10 sacks, 22 tackles for loss), Jerome McDougle (seven sacks, 16 tackles for loss) and Matt Walters (19 quarterback hurries), three monsters who give this group its most dominant defensive front in years.

Coker Says: "We're not satisfied with what we've done so far. We're motivated about continuing to build on the tradition we represent and always striving to reach new heights."

Key Dates: Sept. 7 at Florida; Dec. 7 vs. Virginia Tech





Miami's Jerome McDougle (above left) anchors a Hurricane defensive line that may be tops in the nation. On the other side of the ball, Florida running back Earnest Graham (above) and Tennessee quarterback Casey Clausen (left) will be instrumental in the Gators' and Vols' exciting offensive attacks.

3. TENNESSEE VOLUNTEERS

2001: 11-2, 7-2 SEC; Beat Michigan, 45-17, in Citrus Bowl

Head Coach: Phillip Fulmer (11th year: 65-114; Career: 65-14)

The Lowdown: The Volunteers were knocking on the door of their first Southeastern Conference title since 1998, having vanquished Florida, 34-32, and only needing to beat LSU in the SEC championship game. However, someone forgot to tell LSU that Tennessee was heavily favored and expected to win, as the Tigers prevailed, 31-20.

This year a talented Vols team just might kick down the darn door.

The Casey Clausen-to-Kelly Washington combination is sure to make the highlights on a weekly basis. Clausen was sensational in 2001, completing 227 of 354 attempts for 2,969 yards with 22 touchdowns. Washington, a former minor league baseball player, burst onto the scene, catching a team-high 64 passes for 1,010 yards and five touchdowns while earning consensus All-America and All-SEC honors.

The SEC's second-best defense has lost several stars, but returns linebacker Eddie Moore, who had offseason shoulder surgery but is expected back for the start of the season. Also, end Constantin Ritzmann and tackle Rashad Moore have a golden opportunity to step into the spotlight. Their success under the hot light will be a major factor in this unit's prowess.

Fulmer Says: "[Washington] might be the best in America if he continues on the path he's on. I expect him to have more consistency in his route-running, assignments, blocking and leadership."

Key Dates: Sept. 21 vs. Florida; Nov. 2 at South Carolina

4. FLORIDA GATORS

2001: 10-2, 6-2 SEC; Beat Maryland, 56-23, in Orange Bowl

The Lowdown: Every team loses starting players, but Florida lost its national identity when head coach Steve Spurrier resigned to take over the Washington Redskins. Zook is a Gator Nation product, having served as a defensive and special teams coordinator from 1991-95.

While the Gators did lose their tempestuous sideline boss, leading Heisman Trophy candidate Rex Grossman remained on the roster. Grossman excelled under the critical glare of Spurrier, completing 65.6 percent of his passes for 3,896 yards with 34 touchdowns to finish with a nation's best 170.8 quarterback rating.

The Gators' top downfield target entering this season will be senior

Derrick Strait (top) and the Sooners will have to keep up the great defensive effort to stop quarterback Craig Ochs (above) and the versatile Buffalo offense. Speaking of defense, Washington State's Marcus Trufant is a key part of the Pac-10's top secondary.

Taylor Jacobs, who was last seen ripping up Maryland in the Orange Bowl, earning game MVP honors after hauling in 10 passes for 170 yards and two touchdowns. Sensational senior tailback Earnest Graham gives this club the offensive balance that few teams possess.

Zook will not have to do much tinkering on defense. Nose tackle Ian Scott anchors the frontline after making 75 tackles, 7.5 for loss and 3.5 sacks. Weakside linebacker Mike Nattiel is again starting after making 66 tackles (37 solo), and free safety Todd Johnson produced another All-SEC First-Team season by registering 72 tackles and eight pass breakups.

Zook Says: "We are going to come after people on offense, defense and special teams. That is my style and personality and that attacking personality will be evident throughout our football program."

Key Dates: Sept. 21 at Tennessee; Nov. 30 at Florida State

5. OKLAHOMA SOONERS

2001: 11-2, 6-2 Big 12; Beat Arkansas, 10-3, in Cotton Bowl

Head Coach: Bob Stoops (4th year: 31-7; Career: 31-7)

The Lowdown: Stoops spurned a lucrative offer from the University of Florida to stay in Norman and continue to build on his success. And why not? Under his tutelage, the Sooners have posted a Division I-A-best 24-2 record the last two seasons.

The quarterback situation is unsettled, with Nate Hybl and Jason White competing once again for the starter's spot. Hybl has a decided edge in experience, having started 11 of 13 games, but White showed flashes of brilliance before injuring his knee vs. Nebraska. The main cog in an offense that averaged 30.5 points per game is all-purpose back Quentin Griffin. The Cotton Bowl MVP finished the 2001 campaign with 1,244 all-purpose yards and 11 touchdowns on 237 touches.

On defense, seven starters return to the Big 12's second-best unit (13.8 points per game), led by linebacker Teddy Lehman. The junior (10 tackles for loss) is expected to fill the leadership void created by the departure of Rocky Calmus. Along those same lines, Derrick Strait will try to replace Roy Williams in the secondary. The Austin native made 54 tackles (34 solo) along with three interceptions and 12 passes defended.

Stoops Says: "I think our defense has a chance to be as good as it was last year, and I don't think there is any doubt that we're going to see improvement on offense."

Key Dates: Oct. 12 at Texas; Nov. 2 vs. Colorado

6. WASHINGTON STATE COUGARS

2001: 10-2, 6-2 Pac-10; Beat Purdue, 33-27, in Sun Bowl

Head Coach: Mike Price (14th year: 73-75; Career: 119-119)

The Lowdown: The Cougars completed one of the largest turnarounds in Division I-A last season, earning six more wins than the year before. The trick now is can Price and his Cougars duplicate last season's success?

With quarterback Jason Gesser, the Cougars should be the Pac-10's best, as the junior is coming off a campaign where he threw for 2,729 yards and 25 touchdowns. Gesser will operate behind a veteran offensive line that makes any major household appliance look small—average size is 6-6, 304 pounds. Couple this with the return of three of the team's five leading receivers, including Mike Bush, Washington State's aerial attack could exceed the 299.2 YPG output it had in 2001.

An equal factor in the club's unexpected turnaround was the vastly improved play of the stop troops. Two seasons ago, the defense was giving up 32.2 points per game. Last year, a more aggressive Cougar defense yielded only 22.4 points per game by intercepting 26 passes and holding rushers to 3.6 yards per carry. The trio of left cornerback Marcus Trufant, free safety Erik Coleman and right cornerback Jason David gives Washington State the Pac-10's best starting defensive backfield.

Price Says: "We need to keep [Gesser] healthy, teach him how to slide and stay away from contact down the field. There are always going to be plays Jason makes and you catch your breath."

Key Dates: Oct. 5 vs. USC; Dec. 7 at UCLA

7. COLORADO BUFFALOES

2001: 10-3, 8-1 Big 12; Lost to Oregon, 38-16, in Fiesta Bowl

Head Coach: Gary Barnett (4th year: 20-16; Career: 63-72-2)

The Lowdown: Barnett is looking to make this run-oriented club more diverse offensively now that his team fields a reliable quarterback and a respectable corps of receivers.

Despite missing several games with back and ankle injuries, Craig Ochs completed 99 of 166 attempts for 1,220 yards with seven touchdowns. Proven backup Bobby Pesavento returns after throwing for 1,234 yards, completing 61.2 percent of his passes, with eight touchdowns.

The running game, which ranked third in the Big 12 and eighth nationally (228.5 yards), will again feature rushing leader Chris Brown (946 yards, 16 touchdowns) along with Bobby Purify (916 yards, five scores).

The Big 12's sixth-best passing attack should benefit with three-fifths of the offensive line and wide receiver Derek McCoyback still in the fold.

Defensively, this club wore down toward the end of 2001. A unit that had allowed only two opponents to score over 24 points in the first 10 games, permitted its final three foes to eclipse the 34-point mark. With eight starters back, the Buffs defense shouldn't slip again.

Barnett Says: "The most notable difference in our offense is hopefully going to be a little more effectiveness in the passing game and the ability to throw the ball down the field a little bit more."

Key Dates: Nov. 2 at Oklahoma; Nov. 29 at Nebraska

8. MICHIGAN WOLVERINES

2001: 8-4, 6-2 Big Ten; Lost to Tennessee, 45-17, in Citrus Bowl

Head Coach: Lloyd Carr (8th year: 66-20; Career: 66-20)

The Lowdown: Michigan returns 15 starters from a team that scored the fewest points (320) by a Wolverines team since 1996 (287).

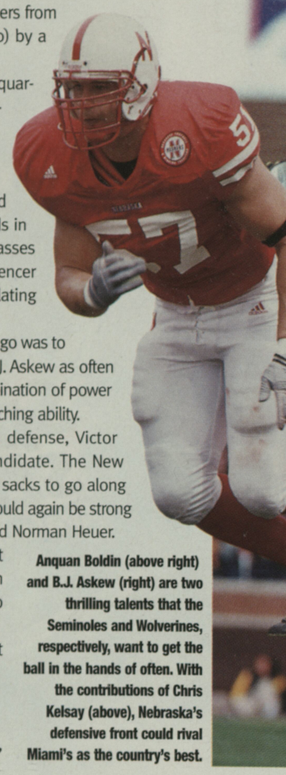
That should change with the return of quarterback John Navarre, a two-year letterwinner who started all 12 games in 2001. Navarre came into his own, completing 207 of 385 attempts for 2,435 yards with 19 touchdowns. The Wisconsin native proved very consistent, throwing for over 200 yards in eight games and completing touchdown passes in 11. With the presence of super talent Spencer Brinton, head coach Lloyd Carr is contemplating a platoon system.

One decision that was made a long time ago was to get the ball in the hands of senior tailback B.J. Askew as often as possible. The bruising back is a rare combination of power and speed, and he has tremendous pass-catching ability.

The Wolverines leading playmaker on defense, Victor Hobson, is a legitimate Butkus Award candidate. The New Jersey native made 80 total tackles and five sacks to go along with his 13 tackles for loss. The Wolverines should again be strong against the run with starters Shantee Orr and Norman Heuer.

Carr Says: "The decision [to platoon at quarterback] is going to be predicated on what we feel is best for the team. We play to win and that will predicate the decision."

Key Dates: Sept. 28 at Illinois; Nov. 23 at Ohio State



Anquan Boldin (above right) and B.J. Askew (right) are two thrilling talents that the Seminoles and Wolverines, respectively, want to get the ball in the hands of often. With the contributions of Chris Kelsay (above), Nebraska's defensive front could rival Miami's as the country's best.

9. FLORIDA STATE SEMINOLES

2001: 8-4, 6-2 ACC; Beat Virginia Tech, 30-17, in Gator Bowl

Head Coach: Bobby Bowden (27th year: 250-59-4; Career: 323-91-4)

The Lowdown: Quarterback Chris Rix is established as the No. 1 starter after he completed 165 of 286 passes for 2,734 yards with 24 touchdowns, good enough to earn him ACC Freshman of the Year honors. Rix also displayed excellent mobility, gaining 389 yards on 99 attempts.

Bowden will also have the luxury of mixing up his tailback rotation with Greg Jones and Nick Maddox, who finished one-two in rushing last season, totaling 1,151 yards and nine touchdowns.

If Anquan Boldin returns to full health after missing all of last season with a preseason knee injury, he should team with Talman Gardner to give the 'Noles the ACC's best receiving tandem.

The defensive unit is led by the linebacking duo of Kendyll Pope and Michael Boulware. Pope has played in every game over the past two seasons. The junior made 10 or more tackles in eight games on his way to placing second on the team with 113 total stops. Boulware, the brother of former FSU great Peter, had 81 tackles and three interceptions.

Bowden Says: "My excitement level is an all-time high. The players came anxious to get to work. They expressed that they did not want any shortcuts and that shows you their heads are in the right place."

Key Dates: Sept. 14 vs. Maryland; Oct. 26 vs. Notre Dame

10. NEBRASKA CORNHUSKERS

2001: 11-2, 7-1 Big 12; Lost to Miami, 37-14, in Rose Bowl

Head Coach: Frank Solich (5th year: 42-9; Career: 42-9)

The Lowdown: The start of the 2002 season couldn't come soon enough as Nebraska tries to put the controversy that surrounded the team at the end of 2001 behind them. After being denied a chance to play for the Big 12 title due to a resounding 62-36 loss to Colorado, Solich's club still earned a controversial berth in the BCS Championship Game.

The Huskers have to replace several outstanding upperclassmen, most notably Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Eric Crouch. Crouch's absence will be a setback for the nation's premier ground game, which averaged a nation's best 314.7 yards per game. Nebraska will use several letter winners at the famed I-back position, including Dahrran Diedrick, who led the Big 12 with 1,299 yards rushing and 15 touchdowns.

Six starters return to a defense that inexplicably imploded in the season's closing weeks. Prior to the Colorado game, the "Blackshirts" held nine of 11 teams to 14 points or less. With the senior pair of nose tackle Jon Clanton and right rush end DeMoine Adams back in the trenches, along with Scott Shanle and Chris Kelsay, who had a team-high 17 tackles for loss, this club should quickly regain its premier status.

Solich Says: "We will be able to utilize our I-back more. This group has speed, and there is no question that we will utilize all of those players."

Key Dates: Nov. 2 vs. Texas; Nov. 29 vs. Colorado ■

THE OPTIMIST CREED PROMISE YOURSELF:

- To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.
- To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.
- To make all your friends feel that there is some thing in them.
- To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.
- To think only of the best, to work only for the best and expect only the best.
- To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.
- To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.
- To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.
- To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.
- To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

The Varsity Club is a group of alumni, parents, corporations and friends of Salisbury University athletics. The purpose of the Varsity Club is to support the University's intercollegiate athletics program. The primary focus of that support is fundraising, through membership and special events for the enhancement of the athletics program. While providing this support, NCAA, athletic conference and University regulations will be followed.
